ABOUT BROTHERS AFTER ALL

Brothers After All delivers an authentic, high-energy concert experience celebrating the music, sound, and improvisational spirit of the Allman Brothers Band.

Built around dual guitars, Hammond organ, two drummers, bass, percussion, and vocals, the seven-piece band recreates the powerful ensemble sound and extended musical interplay that made the Allman Brothers Band legendary.

Founded by percussionist Mitch Fine, Brothers After All brings together accomplished musicians with a shared passion for the music of the Allman Brothers Band. The show combines musicianship, improvisation, and the unmistakable songs audiences know and love in concert experience designed for theaters, performing arts centers, festivals, casinos, and premier live music venues.

THE BAND

Lefty Hathaway — Lead Vocals, Hammond B3 Organ, Keyboards

Pete Quigley — Slide & Lead Guitar, Vocals

Dave Lasman — Lead Guitar, Vocals

Will Keehner — Bass

Jake Jacobs — Drums

Hosny Franck — Drums

Mitch Fine — Percussion

LIVE PERFORMANCE

Brothers After All brings the music of the Allman Brothers Band to life with the power and spontaneity of a live concert. Dual guitars, Hammond organ, two drummers, bass, percussion, and vocals create a full ensemble sound built around extended jams, musical interplay, and improvisation.

From intimate listening rooms to theaters, performing arts centers, festivals, and large concert stages, the show is designed to engage longtime Allman Brothers fans while introducing this timeless music to a new generation.

WHAT VENUES & FANS ARE SAYING

"I have seen over 3,000 shows here and Brothers After All are among the best I have ever heard."

— Eric Wickstrom

Owner, Terra Fermata
Stuart, Florida

"I've been a big Allman Brothers fan for over 52 years, still love them, I saw your band on Sunday at the 4/20 festival in Ft Pierce and you were over the top great, my first time seeing you and the highlight of the festival. Just simply amazing, thank you"

— Craig Schneider

"I have seen the Allman Brothers numerous times in the distant past. I have seen several Allman Brothers tribute bands over the past few years and these guys bring it! Closest thing you will see or hear to the real deal!"

— Mathew Markus, New York

"I closed my eyes and I was transported back to Suwannee. It brought tears to my eyes"

— Scott Goorland, West Palm Beach, Florida
